Mock Parliament

Social and Political life introduces learners to India's political system starting from local Panchayat. One important activity in which students can participate and get hand-on-experience is conducting a mock parliament. This activity can engage the whole school community actively, if organised on the basis of the basic principles.

- * Right side to the speaker - ruling party group, is present there.
- * Left side to the speaker - opposition party group, is present there.
- * Front row first seat in the left - By Speaker. there are some person.

What is a Mock Parliament?

A mock parliament is a recreation or imitation of the parliamentary proceeding of a legislature assembly, the parliamentary legislative Assembly. The Indian Parliament is based upon the westminister model of parliamentary system, the parliament of the United Kingdom.

Speaker The Presiding office holder of The class -

Leader of the Lok Sabha - the lower house of the Indian Parliament, is the Prime minister by default if he is a member of the Lok Sabha. If the prime minister is not a member of the lower house of the Parliament, Leader of house.

Leader of opposition - The member who leads the official opposition in either house of the the Parliament of India. The official status is conferred to the leader of the party having secured 55 seats (107) of the seats in Mock Parliament.

We are aware that today our historical resources are vulnerable, historical sites and monuments / buildings are destroyed in many different ways, from intentional vandalism to casual scribbling on the walls of our monuments. Most people are unaware of the great value of our heritage.

Leads can form groups of the ruling party and the opposition party where one member of the rules opposition party will Raise these queries which will be answered by the ruling party members and everyone will participate in the discussion. Teachers can observe and analyze learners knowledge and understanding about the issues, ability to put forward their views and co-operation among them.
