Shramadhana at CTC-16-03-2024

The Shramadhana cleaning initiative was a significant part of the Citizenship Training Camp organized at Shri Ram Krishna Ashrama. This initiative aimed to instill the values of cleanliness, community service, and environmental responsibility among the student teachers. The event spanned over three days, involving various activities centered on cleaning and maintaining the camp premises.

Objectives

1. To encourage student teachers to actively participate in community service activities and understand the importance of contributing to society.
2. To raise awareness about the significance of cleanliness and environmental conservation.
3. To foster teamwork and collaboration among student teachers through collective cleaning efforts.
4. To instill a sense of discipline and responsibility in student teachers by engaging them in structured cleaning activities.

Activities Conducted

1. The student teachers were divided into groups to clean different sections of the camp, including the ground, pathways, and surrounding areas.
2. Participants were taught the importance of waste segregation and practiced separating biodegradable and non-biodegradable waste.
3. In addition to cleaning, the student teachers also engaged in planting trees and maintaining existing greenery around the camp..

Conclusion

The Shramadhana cleaning initiative at the Citizenship Training Camp was a resounding success, achieving its objectives of promoting community service, enhancing environmental awareness, and fostering teamwork among the student teachers. The event not only contributed to a cleaner and healthier environment but also instilled important values in the participants that will benefit them in their personal and professional lives
